Camper and Parent/Guardian should review the General Camp Rules and Dress Code below.
Please keep this page for reference.

GENERAL CAMP RULES

1. Follow the fire safety plan and all emergency plans.
2. Follow the buddy rule while at camp.
3. Respect off limit areas (Benson House, Lodge, Staff Lounge, and Maintenance Sheds).
4. Respect your counselors, fellow campers, and their property. Every person has a personal space bubble.
5. Stay on camp property at all times. Only go to the challenge course, pool, or beach trail with supervision.
6. Males and females are not allowed on each other's sides of the camp or in each other's cabins.
7. Always swim with a lifeguard.
8. Always wear shoes except at the beach and the pool.
9. Hands are for helping. No rock or stick throwing, hitting, play fighting, towel snapping, or wrestling.
10. Report bullying and unkind acts to keep everyone safe. "If you see something, say something." No put-downs, verbal threats, or ridicule. No profanity or inappropriate language – be positive!
11. Respect the environment. No graffiti of any type (writing or carving). Pick up litter and dispose of it in trashcans. Leave no trace.
12. No spitting.
13. No gum chewing or candy/food allowed in cabins.
14. Campers and staff sign agreement letters regarding items not in possession and community responsibilities and follow them throughout their session.

Dress Code

CAMP DEWOLFE'S DRESS CODE PROVIDES GUIDELINES FOR CLOTHING THAT ARE SAFE AND PRACTICAL FOR CAMP ACTIVITIES. WE WANT OUR CAMPERS TO FOCUS ON WHO THEY ARE CALLED TO BE AND NOT WHAT THEY OR OTHER CAMPERS LOOK LIKE:

1. Shirts must be worn except when at the pool or waterfront.
2. Shirts must have short or long sleeves (minimum of cap sleeves) and cover past the waist. Shirt necks should not be low cut.
3. Shorts and skirts must rest above the hips and extend past the tips of the fingers when standing with arms relaxed at one's side (i.e. fingertip length).
4. Pants should be loose and comfortable for activity. They should stay up without the use of hands. Pants should not have rips, intentional or otherwise, above the knee. Leggings/ tights alone are not camp-appropriate outerwear but can be worn under shorts/ skirts.
5. Bathing suits are to be one-piece for females and boardshorts/ trunks for males. A t-shirt can be worn with swimsuits at both the pool and the waterfront if desired. Quick-dry t-shirts (such as grUVy wear) are an excellent option.
6. Daily footwear needs to be closed toe and have a heel for normal use, e.g., sneakers. Open toed and/or no-heel footwear (e.g., flip flops) are permitted only at the waterfront and pool.
7. Any images or text on clothing should be positive and camp appropriate. Camp staff reserve the right to ask campers to change a piece of clothing based on the staffs' evaluation of the appropriateness of text and images.
8. All clothing should be fully opaque. See-through/sheer clothing is not permitted.

Camp DeWolfe Values for All

We, the directors and staff of Camp DeWolfe, recognize and celebrate the rich diversity in God's family, as represented by the campers and staff of this community. We are dedicated to respecting all of us as its members and encourage you to share these values with your children. We agree to provide a safe, fun and wholesome experience for all children who attend this camp.

Signed: The Camp DeWolfe Staff

Parent/Guardian

As Parent or Guardian, I uphold the Vision of Camp DeWolfe to support spiritual formation in the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island. I agree to inform the staff of any important information about the Camper that might enhance or detract from the Camper's stay and to assist the staff with ensuring the Camper's positive experiences. I further agree that if my child significantly detracts from any other camper's stay through inappropriate physical contact, verbal aggression, bullying, or anything that makes our community feel unsafe, if asked, I will immediately remove my child from camp.

CAMPER

As a Camper, I agree to respect everyone in the camp community and to honor the many differences among us as members of God's family. I will do my best to have a good time without harming others, damaging equipment or any natural thing at camp. I will not tease or make fun of anyone or do anything that may be considered bullying. I understand that bullying is unacceptable and it is important for everyone's safety and honorable to tell my counselors or another adult immediately if someone is being bullied. I agree to play with everyone because we are all members of God's family. If I cannot follow the camp rules I understand that I might be sent home to help keep the camp community safe and welcoming.
